I. LOS ANGELES COUNTY MISDEMEANOR PRE-ARRAIGNMENT RELEASE PROTOCOL FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT

A. Introduction

The purpose of bail is to ensure an arrestee appears for all court appearances and reduce the risk to public or victim safety.¹ Article I, section 12 of the California Constitution entitles most arrestees (who are presumed innocent until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt) to release on bail while awaiting trial. In addition, the Constitution prohibits excessive bail and requires that judicial officers take into account the protection of the public, safety of the victim, seriousness of the offense charged, previous criminal record of the defendant, and the probability of the arrestee appearing at court appearances.² Consistent with the United States Supreme Court’s decision in Salerno, the Superior Court of Los Angeles County (Court) seeks with this protocol to ensure that “in our society liberty is the norm, and detention prior to trial is the carefully limited exception.”³

Applicability of Pre-Arrestment Release Protocol for Low-Level, Non-Violent Felonies and Misdemeanors

For many less serious and low-risk level misdemeanor and felony offenses, the Pre-Arrestment Release Protocol (PARP) represents a shift from the practice of setting money bail, also known as a “financial condition” of release. Prior to the implementation of the PARP, arrestees who could afford to post money bail pursuant to operative bail schedules were released pre-arrestment, while those who could not afford to do so were detained, even if they posed little risk to the public or were likely to return to court. The California Supreme Court has held that conditioning release from custody solely on whether an arrestee can afford bail is unconstitutional. (In re Humphrey (2021) 11 Cal.5th 135, 143 (Humphrey.) Further, research⁴ demonstrates that non-financial conditions of release that address both public and victim safety and the arrestee’s individual circumstances are often sufficient and may be preferable to financial conditions for numerous reasons. In Humphrey, the Supreme Court instructed trial courts to impose the least restrictive conditions of release for defendants and to consider whether non-financial conditions of release may reasonably protect the public and the victim or reasonably assure the defendant’s presence at trial.

Effective October 1, 2023, this Pre-Arrestment Release Protocol shall govern whether eligible arrestees in Los Angeles County are released from custody without conditions, released with non-financial conditions, or held in custody pending arraignment. Using the PARP, the Court sets release conditions based on an arrestee’s risk to public or victim safety and the arrestee’s likelihood of returning to court and reduces reliance on money bail as a condition of release prior to arraignment for individuals arrested for certain misdemeanor and non-violent, low-level felonies.

Through the PARP, the Court assesses and releases from custody (with release conditions where appropriate) those arrestees who pose a minimal risk of flight or danger to public or victim safety. For arrestees charged with certain non-violent felony and misdemeanor offenses, the offenses will fall within one of three categories – CR (Cite and Release); BR (Book and Release); and MR (Magistrate Review). The categories are described in more detail below and each eligible offense is assigned a category.

Zero-Dollar Bail Is Not Available for Serious or Violent Offenses Pre-Arraignment

Zero-dollar bail is not available for serious or violent crimes.

The following arrestees are ineligible for pre-arraignment release on zero-dollar bail:

1. Individuals arrested for capital crimes when the facts are evident or the presumption great and all offenses listed in subdivisions (b) and (c) of Article I, section 12 of the California Constitution are ineligible for release on their own recognizance or sufficient sureties.⁵
2. Individuals arrested for any offense listed in Penal Code section 1270.1. Individuals arrested for offenses listed in Penal Code section 1270.1 are ineligible for release on their own recognizance or release on bail in an amount that is either more or less than the amount contained in the schedule of bail for the offense until a hearing is held in open court before the magistrate or judge. For these offenses the arrestees must post financial conditions of release as required by that statute or be held until arraignment within the time outlined in Penal Code section 825, or the time by which they may have a hearing in open court as required. Existing law requires a non-zero-dollar amount of bail to be set for these offenses. Financial conditions of release for those crimes or enhancements are listed within the protocol.
3. Individuals arrested for any offense where there is a sentencing enhancement, as defined in subdivision (e) of Penal Code section 1269b. For offenses with these enhancements, arrestees must post financial conditions of release (non-zero-dollar amount of bail) as required by that statute and listed within the protocol.

Definitions of CR, BR, and MR

For those offenses designated as either CR or BR, eligible arrestees will be released on their own recognizance with a promise to appear at arraignment either at the time of arrest (CR) or after being booked at a police station or other facility (BR). Nothing in this protocol should be construed to alter the authority of law enforcement to cite-and-release or book-and-release as authorized by state law. These arrestees are not required to post cash bail, and the offenses for which they are booked are designated in the schedule as zero-dollar ($0) bail offenses. However, arrestees booked for an offense designated as CR or BR who are currently on Felony Probation, Parole or Post Release Community Supervision (PRCS) will be referred to a magistrate for review. (Pen. Code, § 1319.5, subd. (b)(1).) In addition, arrestees for certain offenses who have 3 or more failures to appear in other recent criminal cases will be referred to a magistrate for review. (Pen. Code, § 1319.5, subd. (b)(2).) The Los Angeles Superior Court has magistrates available 7 days a week, 24 hours a day.

⁵ Cal. Const., art. I, § 12.

For those crimes designated as MR, arrestees will be referred to a magistrate for review. As set forth further below, magistrates will consider the available information to determine whether to release an arrestee on their own recognizance with no conditions, release them on their own recognizance with the least restrictive non-financial conditions, or defer consideration of release until arraignment under limited circumstances. All offenses in the MR category are designated as $0 bail offenses.

Pre-arraignment bail amounts and designations in the PARP are not binding on judicial officers at arraignment, which typically occurs within 48 hours of arrest unless there is a holiday or a weekend when the court is otherwise closed. At arraignment, where both the prosecution and the defendant are represented by counsel, judicial officers have the full range of options available with respect to the defendant's bail and custody status. The arraignment court can consider, among other facts and issues raised, the prosecutor's charging document, the defendant's criminal history, the facts of the case, and any information the prosecutor and the defense attorney may offer.

Arrest Warrants – Bail Amounts

At and after the defendant's first appearance, the judicial officer before whom the defendant appears will determine release conditions, if any. (See section II (A) and (C).) A magistrate fixing financial conditions of release pursuant to Penal Code section 815a which requires that a magistrate fix the amount of bail which in their judgment is in accordance with the provisions of section 1275 will be reasonable and sufficient for the appearance of the defendant following their arrest, if the offense is bailable, may use this schedule at the time an arrest warrant is issued. The amount of bail is within the sound discretion of the magistrate. (See section II (B).)

B. How to Use the Pre-Arraignment Release Protocol

The purpose of this protocol is to designate pre-arraignment release orders upon which a person arrested without a warrant may be assessed for release before their appearance in court. Arrestees booked on crimes listed in Penal Code section 1270.1 are not eligible for non-financial conditions of release pre-arraignment.

Prior to arraignment, the release protocol for each crime will be designated in the column titled "Pre-Arraignment Release Protocol." Within that designated column, the following abbreviations will refer to the appropriate pre-arraignment protocol for arrestees booked for the referenced crime.

1. CITE AND RELEASE (CR)

People arrested for crimes designated as CR are subject to $0 bail and are not required to provide financial conditions of release unless a designated exception applies as stated in Item 5. Arrestees must promise to appear in court for arraignment notwithstanding Penal Code section 977.

2. BOOK AND RELEASE (BR)

People arrested for crimes designated as BR are subject to $0 bail and are not required to provide financial conditions of release unless a designated exception applies as stated in Item 5. Arrestees must promise to appear in court for arraignment as required by Penal Code section 1318.

3. MAGISTRATE REVIEW (MR)

People arrested for crimes designated as MR are subject to $0 bail and are not required to provide financial conditions of release unless a designated exception applies as stated in Item 5. Arrestees must promise to appear in court for arraignment as required by Penal Code section 1318, they must be booked by a law enforcement agency (LEA), and their release conditions, if any, will be determined by a magistrate. Applying the factors set forth in Penal Code section 1275, and Article I, sections 12 and 28, the magistrate will consider known facts about the offense and the arrestee as well as a risk assessment report in deciding to (1) release the arrestee on their own recognizance; (2) release the arrestee upon $0 money bail and non-financial conditions of release that are the least restrictive conditions reasonably related to the crime that are necessary to assure their appearance at court and the safety of the public and victim; or (3) defer until arraignment consideration of the arrestee's release, if the magistrate finds by clear and convincing evidence based on the available information that "public or victim safety, or the arrestee's appearance in court, cannot be reasonably assured" if they are released with nonfinancial conditions (In re Humphrey (2021) 11 Cal.5th 135, 154) or the arrestee is otherwise statutorily ineligible for release prior to arraignment.

Once the least restrictive condition or combination of conditions is determined by the magistrate, the County's Pretrial Services Unit will communicate the release conditions, if any, to the booking LEA. The LEA will communicate the condition(s) to the arrestee. If the arrestee accepts the conditions, the arrestee will be released. If not, further consideration of the arrestee's release will be deferred until arraignment.

4. FINANCIAL CONDITIONS OF RELEASE

Pursuant to Penal Code section 1270.1, persons arrested for designated misdemeanors must post financial conditions of release as required by that statute or be held until arraignment within the time outlined in Penal Code section 825, or the time by which they may have a hearing in open court as required. Financial conditions of release for those crimes or enhancements are listed as dollar amounts within the protocol.

5. EXCEPTIONS

a. ARRESTEE ON FELONY PROBATION, PAROLE, POST RELEASE COMMUNITY SUPERVISION (PRCS), or MULTIPLE FAILURES TO APPEAR AS DEFINED:

If an arrestee is booked for an offense listed as CR or BR in the bail schedule, and is on an active grant of felony probation, parole or PRCS at the time of the offense, the arrestee shall be referred to a magistrate for review.

Alternatively, if an arrestee is booked for an offense listed as CR or BR in the bail schedule, and that crime is enumerated in Penal Code section 1319.5, subdivision (b)(2), and the arrestee has failed to appear in court as ordered, resulting in a warrant being issued, three or more times over the three years preceding the current arrest, the arrestee shall be referred to a magistrate for review.

LEA shall communicate to the Probation Department whether the arrestee is an exception from the release protocol due to these circumstances which would require magistrate review for the booked offense.

The magistrate will not act on the post-conviction matter.

b. ARRESTEE ACCUSED OF MULTIPLE OFFENSES:

- i. If an arrestee is booked on two or more offenses with differing protocol designations ($0 bail and CR, BR, or MR), pre-arraignment release protocol shall be determined by the strictest release protocol designated.
- ii. If an arrestee is booked on two or more offenses, one which designates a non-financial condition of release and the other which designates a financial condition of release, pre-arraignment release shall be determined by the financial condition of release designated for each crime. No additional financial conditions may be added for crimes designated as $0 bail and CR, BR, or MR. Because the arrestee is subject to financial conditions of release, the arrestee will not be referred to a magistrate for review.
- iii. If two or more misdemeanor offenses require financial conditions of release, the amount shall be set for the offense having the highest amount, except where the offenses are committed against separate victims or on separate dates, in which case the financial conditions may be aggregated. Because the arrestee is subject to financial conditions of release, the arrestee will not be referred to a magistrate for review.

6. REPRODUCTIVE RIGHTS

In accordance with Penal Code section 1269b, subdivision (f)(2), bail shall be set at zero dollars ($0) and the offense designated as CR for an individual who has been arrested in connection with a proceeding in another state regarding an individual performing, supporting, or aiding in the performance of an abortion in this state, or an individual obtaining an abortion in this state, if the abortion is lawful under the laws of this state.

7. GENERAL PROVISIONS

a. Uniform Codes

For all misdemeanor offenses within the following codes, the bail shall be set at zero dollars ($0) and the offense designated as CR: Civil Code, Code of Civil Procedure, Education Code, Election Code, Financial Code, Food and Agriculture Code, Government Code, Insurance Code, Labor Code, Public Utilities Code, Revenue and Taxation Code, Street and Highways Code, and Unemployment Insurance Code.

b. Unlisted Misdemeanors

For all offenses chargeable as straight misdemeanors, or as a felony or a misdemeanor (“wobblers”), under state statutes or municipal or agency ordinances, for which there is no uniform bail and which are not otherwise provided in this schedule, including unlisted subdivisions, the bail shall be set at zero dollars ($0) and the offense designated as CR.

8. BAIL DEVIATION

Pursuant to Penal Code section 1269c and 1269b(c), bail deviation is available to process all bail increase and decrease requests for persons who have been arrested (other than pursuant to an arrest warrant) but not arraigned.

Law Enforcement requests to increase bail shall be made within two hours of booking. Such a request is available pursuant to Penal Code section 1269c:

- a. As to those individuals arrested without a warrant for a bailable felony offense or for the misdemeanor offense of violating a domestic violence restraining order, and;
- b. When a peace officer has reasonable cause to believe that the amount of bail set forth in the schedule of bail for that offense is insufficient to ensure the defendant's appearance or to ensure the protection of a victim, or family member of a victim, of domestic violence.

Under these circumstances, "the peace officer shall prepare a declaration under penalty of perjury setting forth the facts and circumstances in support of his or her belief and file it with a magistrate . . . requesting an order setting a higher bail." (Pen. Code, §1269c.)

For Crimes Requiring Money Bail
(Crimes designated with a financial condition of release in the bail schedule.)

A request to increase the amount of money bail designated in the bail schedule shall be called in to the Probation Department within two hours of booking at (213) 351-0373 or (800) 773-5151. The Probation Department is available 24 hours per day. LEA shall submit a signed, written declaration to the magistrate, LASC Crim 205, available on the Court's website.

Requests for a reduction of the money bail amount designated within the bail schedule are not available prior to arraignment for crimes listed within Penal Code section 1270.1, subdivision (a) pursuant to Penal Code section 1269c.

For Crimes Not Requiring a Financial Condition of Release (Crimes designated as CR, BR or MR within the bail schedule.)

A request to elevate the designated protocol (e.g., CR/BR to MR) shall be called in to the Probation Department within two hours of booking at (213) 351-0373 or (800) 773-5151. The Probation Department is available 24 hours per day.

LEA shall communicate to the Probation Department its request that the bail protocol designation be increased within the meaning of this Bail Schedule.

A request for upward bail deviation of an offense designated in the bail schedule as CR or BR may cause the arrestee to be referred to a magistrate for review.

An attorney, friend, or family member of the arrestee may make an application to the magistrate for release on bail lower than that provided in the schedule of bail or on his or her own recognizance by calling the number above within two hours of booking. (Pen. Code, §1269c.)

A magistrate will consider all timely and lawful requests in their release decision.

CALIFORNIA CODE OF REGULATIONS, TITLE 14: NATURAL RESOURCES

For all violations of Title 14 of the California Regulations (Natural Resources), pre-arraignment release protocol is CR.

LOS ANGELES COUNTY CODE

For all violations of the Los Angeles County Code, pre-arraignment release protocol is CR.

II. RELEASE CONSIDERATIONS FOR JUDICIAL OFFICERS

A. How to Use the Schedule

At and after a defendant's first appearance on any crime, pursuant to Penal Code section 1269b, subdivision (b), the amount of bail or conditions of release, if any are allowed, shall lie with the sound discretion of the judicial officer before whom the defendant appears, and may be greater or less than the amount set forth in this schedule, or may be more or less restrictive than the pre-arraignment release order, subject to the provisions of Penal Code section 1275.

A court's consideration of release conditions in an individual case is governed by mandatory factors identified in the California Constitution: "In setting, reducing or denying bail, the judge or magistrate shall take into consideration the protection of the public, the safety of the victim, the seriousness of the offense charged, the previous criminal record of the defendant, and the probability of his or her appearing at the trial or hearing of the case. Public safety and the safety of the victim shall be the primary considerations." (Cal. Const., art. 1, § 28, subd. (f)(3).) Furthermore, the Penal Code states: "In setting, reducing, or denying bail, a judge or magistrate shall take into consideration the protection of the public, the seriousness of the offense charged, the previous criminal record of the defendant, and the probability of his or her appearing at trial or at a hearing of the case. The public safety shall be the primary consideration. In setting bail, a judge or magistrate may consider factors such as the information included in a report prepared in accordance with Section 1318.1." (Pen. Code, § 1275, subd. (a)(1).) In addition, the Court must consider the legal principles set forth in In re Humphrey (2021) 11 Cal.5th 135.

B. Arrest Warrants

When issuing an arrest warrant pursuant to Penal Code section 815a, a judicial officer may use this protocol in setting a financial condition of release (i.e., money bail). The financial condition fixed to the arrest warrant lies within the sound discretion of the judicial officer who may use the amounts listed in the protocol or in subdivision C, below.

C. Determining Financial Conditions of Release at Arraignment or Future Court Proceedings

A judicial officer may also use the protocol in setting financial conditions of release at arraignment or future court proceedings when there is a change in circumstance or as permitted by statute. Release conditions lie within the sound discretion of the judicial officer and are subject to the considerations summarized in subdivision A, above. Financial conditions of release for offenses designated CR, BR, or MR may be set according to the following guideline:

CR.....$1,000-$5,000
BR.....$15,000
MR.....$30,000

D. Penal Code Section 1270.1

This section prohibits the release of an arrestee on bail in an amount other than that set forth in this bail schedule prior to a hearing in open court for:

- Violent felonies as described in Penal Code section 667.5, subdivision (c), but not 460, subdivision (a);
- Serious felonies as described in Penal Code section 1192.7, subdivision (c) (including those listed in Penal Code section 1192.8);

- Violations of Penal Code sections 136.1, subdivision (c), 243, subdivision (e)(1), 273.5, 422 (as a felony), and 646.9; and
- Violation of Penal Code section 273.6 if the detained person made threats to kill or harm, has engaged in violence against, or has gone to the residence or workplace of the protected party.
