“Supervised visitation” is contact between a noncustodial party and one or more children in the presence of a neutral third person. A provider of supervised visitation is defined in Family Code section 3200 and includes any individual who functions as a visitation monitor as well as supervised visitation centers. A provider is either a “professional provider” or a “nonprofessional provider”.

This Standing Order is intended to implement the standards of practice for providers of supervised visitation as set forth in California Rules of Court, Standards of Judicial Administration, Standard 5.20 (“Standard 5.20”) and supersedes Superior Court of California, County of Los Angeles Local Rule 5.25.

Unless otherwise ordered by the court or stipulated to by the parties, the following applies to nonprofessional providers. The nonprofessional provider must:

- (1) Have no record of a conviction for child molestation, child abuse, or other crimes against a person;
- (2) Have proof of automobile insurance if transporting the child;
- (3) Have no current or past court order in which the provider is the person being supervised;
- and
- (4) Agree to adhere to and enforce the court order regarding supervised visitation.

(5) Sign and file with the Court a Declaration of Supervised Visitation Provider (NonProfessional) (form FL-324(NP) stating that all requirements to be a non-professional provider have been met.

In addition, the nonprofessional provider should:

- (1) Be 21 years of age or older;
- (2) Have no record of conviction for driving under the influence (DUI) within the last 5 years;
- (3) Not have been on probation or parole for the last 10 years;
- (4) Have no civil, criminal, or juvenile restraining orders within the last 10 years; and
- (5) Not be financially dependent on the person being supervised.

Unless otherwise ordered by the court or stipulated to by the parties, the following applies to professional providers. The professional provider must:

- (1) Be 21 years of age or older;
- (2) Have no record of conviction for driving under the influence (DUI) within the last 5 years;
- (3) Not have been on probation or parole for the last 10 years;
- (4) Have no record of a conviction for child molestation, child abuse, or other crimes against a person;
- (5) Have proof of automobile insurance if transporting the child;
- (6) Have no civil, criminal, or juvenile restraining orders within the last 10 years;
- (7) Have no current or past court order in which the provider is the person being supervised;
- (8) Be able to speak the language of the party being supervised and of the child, or the provider must provide a neutral interpreter over the age of 18 who is able to do so;
- (9) Agree to adhere to and enforce the court order regarding supervised visitation;
- (10) Complete a Live Scan criminal background check, at the expense of the provider or the supervised visitation center or agency, before providing visitation services;
- (11) Be registered as a TrustLine provider under chapter 3.35 (commencing with section 1596.60) of division 2 of the Health and Safety Code. Notwithstanding any other law, a person is ineligible to be a professional provider if the California Department of Social Services either denies that person's TrustLine registration under Health and Safety Code sections 1596.605 or

1 1596.607; or revokes that person's TrustLine registration under Health and Safety Code section
2 1596.608;

3 (12) Meet the training requirements listed in subsection (f) of Standard 5.20.

4 (13) Sign and file with the Court a Declaration of Supervised Visitation Provider (Professional)
5 (form FL-324(P)) stating that all requirements to be a professional provider have been met; and

6 (14) Sign and file with the Court a separate, updated form FL-324(P) each time the 7 professional provider submits a report to the court.
