HOW CAN I BE EXCUSED FROM SERVICE OR POSTPONED WHEN I REPORT?

There are a number of legal reasons that can be presented by a juror requesting an excuse from jury service. Please understand that it must be an extreme hardship. If it is a temporary hardship, jury staff will be glad to postpone your service to a later date.

If you are requesting a financial hardship, the court cannot excuse you for a financial hardship simply because your employer does not pay, you are self-employed, or you are a sole practitioner. Whatever profession or work that you do, you must prove that you have an EXTREME financial hardship. Again, staff will be glad to give you a reasonable postponement to allow you to arrange your jury service.

If you request a hardship for dependent care of others, whether for your child, parent, or spouse, please understand that this also must be an extreme hardship. The court requires that you prove that you have actual care of that individual continuously between the hours of 8:00 a.m. through 5:00 p.m. If your child is in school, you must arrange care for your child during the few short hours between the time school ends and the end of your jury service day.

Lastly, you may have a medical hardship that prevents you from serving as a juror. You need to let us know what the hardship is by completing your jury summons form in the appropriate place.

Your excuse from jury service should be requested before you appear. If you have previously requested an excusal and your request was denied, the staff will not reconsider your request.

The Court expects you to start your service when you are called in, but if you had an emergency that would prevent you from starting your service, please let the staff know so that you can postpone your jury service. The judge may not entertain your request to postpone once you are in the courtroom.

IN THE COURTROOM – The judicial assistant will take roll to assure all jurors have arrived. You will be sworn as a prospective trial juror. The clerk will then call prospective jurors to sit in the jury box from a computerized random listing. You will not be called in alphabetical order. Remember to always listen to the judges and court staff’s instructions. If you are in selection and ordered to return on a future day, please return as instructed.

WHAT HAPPENS WHEN YOU ARE EXCUSED FROM THE COURTROOM? –

Please listen carefully to the Judges instructions. If you are excused from the case, please gather your belongings, obtain a verification of jury service from the judicial assistant and leave the courthouse. Your jury service is complete, and you do not need to serve for 12 months.

IF YOU ARE EXCUSED BEFORE THE END OF BUSINESS DAY, PLEASE CONTACT YOUR SUPERVISOR REGARDING YOUR RETURN-TO-WORK POLICY.
